

CITIZENS POLICE ACADEMY

Have you ever wondered what your police officers really do on a day to day basis? There are many common misconceptions about what police officer's do thanks to those shows you see on television and what the media chooses to report. Here's your opportunity to find out for yourself.

The Farmersville Police Department hosts a Citizens Police Academy. The academy consist of 12 weeks, 1 night a week for 3 hours. You'll learn everything from how to become a police officer to patrol functions, investigations, weapons and tactics, accidents, arrest, search and seizure, just to name a few.

Our goal is to educate the public of the job and challenges each officer is charged with doing each day while fostering a positive relationship with the community.

If interested or for more information, contact Officer Jay Crawley at j.crawley@farmersvilletx.com.